

Bold Tastes for a Cozy Cityscape

Spice up your life in Easton! Easton's food scene boasts a rich history dating back to 1752 when the Easton Farmers' Market first sprouted up, making it the nation's oldest continually operating open-air market. With riverfront views, patrons enjoy Saturday strolls (eastonfarmersmarket.com) shopping along the local merchants that line up Larry Holmes Drive. On Wednesdays, don't miss the West Ward Market for a true neighborhood atmosphere packed with fresh, local goodies and community vibes.

Check out the Easton Public Market (Wednesday - Sunday, eastonpublicmarket.com) for a mouthwatering selection of artisanal tacos, authentic BBQ, ramen, specialty pizzas, and more, served up by 14 talented and diverse vendors.

With over 30 restaurants in the downtown area and another 40 citywide, you'll never run out of dining options. Wash it all down with a visit to one of our six craft breweries, four wineries, two distilleries, or one of our many independent coffee houses. (shopdowntownneaston.com)

Endless Excitement: Banishing Boredom

Dive into our packed calendar of festivals and live events, from the sizzling PA Bacon Fest (pabaconfest.com) where thousands of foodies and bacon-lovers flood the city ready to indulge in the downtown bash, to the monumental celebration of Heritage Day (heritageday.org) where our residents and beyond honor the historical role and diverse culture that has built Easton.

Groove to free tunes and musical performances at Live at the Falls (Thursday evenings June - August, liveatfalls.com) or join the lively Fourth Friday events (shopdowntownneaston.com/fourth-fridays) for some downtown music and shopping excitement.

And when the holidays roll around, Easton shines like no other. Experience the magic of Easton Winter Village (Friday-Sunday, eastonwintervillage.com), complete with outdoor shopping, a family-friendly skating rink, and the glow of our 106-foot Peace Candle illuminating the city with endless twinkling lights.

Plus, all year round, our streets are lined with independent stores, boutiques, and galleries just waiting to be explored. Whether you're hunting for fashion, jewelry, antiques, or artisanal goods, you'll find it here in Easton!

Easton Experience Guide

Savor. Celebrate. Stay. Explore.

EST. 1752

EASTON
PENNSYLVANIA

Independent at Heart.

Easton: Independent at Heart

Nestled at the meeting point of the Delaware and Lehigh Rivers, our vibrant city pulsates with history, art, culinary delights, and music. From tantalizing, diverse eateries and eclectic shops to captivating attractions and a plethora of events, Easton promises an unforgettable experience for one and all.

As one of only three locations where the Declaration of Independence was first proclaimed in 1776, Easton proudly upholds its spirit of independence. We're a sanctuary for free-thinkers, creatives, entrepreneurs, and community champions—where echoes of the past mingle with the boundless possibilities of the future. Come discover inspiration at every turn in Easton!
